24/04 Reports from Lincolnshire County Council/Boston Borough Council

Cllr P Skinner gave a verbal report regarding Lincolnshire County Council updates.

24/05 Issues relating to the Playing Fields, Potholes and the Environment of the Parish
Playing Fields

Cllr Horwat confirmed that he had received the angle irons for the gazebo and that the fruit trees had been pruned.

The Chairman confirmed that the walnut tree, which was being dedicated to Jane Moore, was ready to be planted in the next 2 weeks. Cllr White offered to contact the Moore family to advise them and confirm a date.

Potholes

Cllr Skinner had provided an update regarding potholes in the parish therefore there were no further matters to discuss regarding this matter.

Environment

Planning Application ref: B/23/0398

Outline planning application with some matters reserved (Appearance, Landscaping, Layout & Scale) for later approval for 1no dwelling & detached garage with access at Land to the south-east of Sheepgate Equestrian, Sheepgate, Leverton, Boston PE22 0AS.

The clerk confirmed that the application had been refused.

Cllr White reported that the 'For Sale' signage for The Old Horseshoes property was located outside the Leverton War Memorial entrance and it could be interpreted that the memorial grounds were for sale. The clerk agreed to contact Town and Country Estate Agents and ask for it to be moved.
