24/66 Reports from Lincolnshire County Council/Boston Borough Council

Cllr P Skinner gave a verbal report regarding Lincolnshire County Council updates.
The Chairman read a report which had been provided by Cllr D Broughton regarding matters at Boston Borough Council.

24/67 Issues relating to the Playing Fields, Potholes and the Environment of the Parish
Playing Fields

Cllr Horwat stated that there had been some damage to the fruit trees caused by forceful snapping of branches. Members agreed that this behaviour should stop as the children were now back in school after the summer holidays and the evenings were drawing in.

The clerk was asked if she could obtain a quote for signage detailing 'no ball games allowed except football and basketball'.

Cllr Horwat stated that the fire engine in the play park needed new rear seats and asked if the clerk could request a quotation.

Potholes

Cllr Skinner gave a detailed update on the parish potholes and resurfacing and encouraged members of the council to continue using FixMyStreet.

Environment

Cllr Horwat stated that the grit bin next to the bus shelter was collapsing and needed renewing, the clerk confirmed she would report it.

24/68 Update on Leverton Leisure Centre

The clerk confirmed that after further investigation, Leverton Parish Council were Custodial Trustees of Leverton Leisure Centre and therefore were not liable for any decisions or dealings in the management of the centre. The clerk confirmed that the deeds and legal letters which she had received were now stored away for safe keeping.
